Jeffrey Hope

After graduating with a degree in Music Education from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Jeff returned to UMass to study under Eduardo Leandro and earn his master's degree in Percussion Performance. At the University, he worked as a graduate assistant to Thom Hannum, both teaching and arranging for the Sudler Trophy-winning Minutemen Marching Band percussion section.

Since 1997, Jeff has written for and taught numerous high school marching, indoor, and concert percussion groups. He has also been actively involved with Drum Corps International since 1997 as a performing member with the Boston Crusaders and the Crossmen, as a percussion technician for The Troopers, Magic of Orlando, The Madison Scouts, and The Blue Stars, and as a show designer and percussion arranger for the Targets Drum and Bugle Corps from Springfield, MA. As the Director of the Spirit of America Indoor Percussion Ensemble in Orleans, MA, Jeff led the group to four consecutive WGI Independent A Class Finals appearances. In conjunction with the indoor group, he also worked as the Percussion Director and front ensemble arranger for the WAMSB World Champion Spirit of America Marching Band.

In addition to teaching and arranging, Jeff has also been an active percussion performer since 2005 playing with groups such as The Berkshire Symphony, The Amherst College Orchestra, the Smith College Orchestra, The Dartmouth Handel Society, The Manchester Music Festival, and the Cobb Wind Symphony.

Since 2010, Jeff has been the Co-Director of Percussion at Harrison High School in Kennesaw, GA where he instructs and arranges for the BOA Grand National Class AAA Champion Harrison Marching Band percussion section, directs the WGI Open Class Semi-Finalist Harrison Indoor Percussion Ensemble, and works closely with the Sudler Flag-winning concert programs.

Jeff is a Vic Firth Education Team member as well as an endorser.
